Examiners (scales of pay)

* 644 Q.—SRI S. MADHAVAN : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state—

(a) whether at the time of separation of Judiciary from the Executive, the examiners were allotted to the Judicial department;

(b) whether the recommendation of the Pay Commission in regard to their scales of pay has been implemented; and

(c) whether there is any difference between the scales of pay of examiners of the Criminal and the Civil Courts?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM : (a) At the time of separation of the Judiciary from the Executive, some of the District Magistrates in the Separation districts took over the examiners who were previously working in the Revenue department;

(b) The Pay Commission's recommendation in regard to fixation of time-scale of pay was implemented in the case of Examiners in the Civil Courts;

(c) The Examiners in Civil Courts are on a time-scale of pay whereas the Examiners in Criminal Courts are paid on a piece-rate basis. The question of sanctioning a time-scale of pay to the Examiners in Criminal Courts is under the consideration of Government.
